Home On Wheels? Yep, It Sleeps 10

From a small, compact 11-foot-long, five-foot-wide and four-foot-tall trailer, Alaner Linda Branco has built a four-bedroom camping outfit, sleeping up to 10.

Price worked on plans for a year, he said, it took him about six months to construct, working in his spare time. Since the trailer is a complete unit, a month ago, the Price's have been camping in it.

Price emphasizes the front end of the trailer which drops down level. The pull out of the trailer is used which allows to travel two full beds. Then, another two beds to set up a small tent, two tents would cover the entire trailer.
